We know that big life decisions are anything but simple. And choosing to study is one of the biggest. It comes with obstacles and challenges. Early mornings and late nights. Financial stress. Side hustle. Unwavering determination and the strength to say, “I will not quit.”

But at Milpark, you're not alone. We're there with you, guiding you, celebrating you, cheering you on, every step of the way. Because to us, education is more than just classes and lectures, assignments and exams.

It's about you, your life, your growth, your unique and beautiful potential and the value that you bring to the world. That's why we're there, day after day, offering meaningful, mutual support and guidance on intuitive platforms designed with you in mind.

We offer so much more than an online education. We're a community, a learning collective. A place where you're welcomed by like-minded people who understand you and your journey. ABOUT MILPARK

WHO ARE WE?

Milpark, born in 1997, was one of South Africa's first private providers of higher management education. Today, we're registered with DHET, offering online higher education in three formats: Distance Learning, Distance Learning Online, and Online Short Courses. Our students join us because they want to study in a supportive environment, where they'll grow in confidence, knowledge, and possibility. Our community is made up of full-time working professionals looking to upskill, study for the first time, or explore a career change; school leavers interested in flexible higher education; and corporates seeking employee training and development. No matter who they are, we help our students work towards their goals - and reach them.

WHAT DO WE DO?

A Milpark online learning journey is a transformative experience where you'll grow in confidence, knowledge, and possibility, whilst preparing for the real world and the digital future. Accredited programmes in business, commerce, accounting, finance, insurance and banking are facilitated through:

1. The School of Professional Accounting (incorporating CA Connect)
2. The School of Commerce

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

WELCOME TO THE SCHOOL OF COMMERCE!

We, in the School of Commerce, embrace this change and adapt to it. That's why the qualifications we offer continue to be recognised by employers and other industry professionals. Our qualifications are also endorsed by the professional organisations in their respective fields.
